INTRODUCTION

The publishers of the 49th edition of the Fort Wayne City Directory present this work to the public with a great deal of satisfaction, believing that it will meet the demands and all the requirements of the most exacting in the conduction of political, civic, business and social affairs. This book contains a vast store of information; it is a catalogue of the city in which everyone is listed, rich and poor alike, side by side. It contains an alphabetical list of business firms and private citizens; a directory of churches and societies; city, county, state and United States government information; a buyer's guide and a complete classified business directory of Fort Wayne.

Special care has been exercised to make this work accurate and complete, and in the accomplishment of this task the publishers have utilized their carefully trained force and efficient methods. This work represents the efforts of a thorough and complete organization, long trained in this form of work, with the benefit of fifty years' experience behind it.

The service rendered by the publishers does not cease with the information presented in this work. A library of city directories is maintained by the publishers for the use of the public, which is of immeasurable service to the people of Fort Wayne and to the city itself and keeps it in constant touch with other parts of the country. Fort Wayne is represented in other cities by its directory, which serves as a prominent and lasting advertisement for the city of Fort Wayne. In other places a city is often judged by its directory.

POPULATION

Throughout the country generally the estimate of population made by the directory publishers has been higher than the census estimate, which is only the difference between work performed by a trained organization under competent superintendence and work done by an untrained force without superintendence. The canvass for the Fort Wayne Directory includes the entire city, so that the name of each person employed should be taken twice, once at the dwelling and again at the place of business. After the canvass has been completed this information is compiled, and it is necessary that there should be two slips for each person employed. The information taken at the residence and at the place of business is compared before the duplicate is laid aside. When a discrepancy is found a special messenger is dispatched to correct the conflicting information, or if the name has not been taken at both places, to retake it at the home or business place. The new information is checked with the previous directory and each name in the old directory is accounted for. It is this careful superintendence and revision which makes the directory estimate of population higher than the census figures.

The directory estimate of population is based on the actual number of names contained in the book, which is multiplied by 2 to represent married women and children, indicating a population of 94,904 at the present time.

The publishers wish to express their appreciation to the patrons for patronage bestowed upon this work and to all the people of the city for their willingness to co-operate and give the necessary information.

Respectfully,

R. L. POLK & CO.,
Publishers.

SOME SUBSTANTIAL STATEMENTS

Fort Wayne, from which the name of the city is derived, was erected in 1794 by General Anthony Wayne at that point where the St. Mary's and the St. Joseph's unite to form the Maumee river, which flows into Lake Erie at Toledo.

It had been an Indian trading post for a hundred years previous, its Indian name being "Kekionga."

It had been held in earlier times by the French, who built a fort for its protection a short distance west, on the St. Mary's river, and later by the English, who constructed a fort on the St. Joseph's, a short distance north of the site chosen for "Fort Wayne."

The area of the city is fifteen and eight-tenths square miles.

Within its corporate limits it has nine miles of rivers —five of the St. Mary's, two of the St. Joseph's and two of the Maumee. All of these river banks within the city are owned by the city, and are to be parked and boulevarded.

Fort Wayne has never had a "boom," and it has never stopped growing. Its population in 1840 was 2,050; in 1850, 4,282; in 1860, 10,388; in 1870, 17,718; in 1880, 26,880; in 1890, 35,393; in 1900, 52,057; in 1910, 71,500; in 1920, 91,600; in 1921, 93,070, and in 1922, 94,904.

It has four east and west trunk line railways—the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago (Pennsylvania lines), the Wabash, the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), and the New York Central lines. It has two north and south trunk lines—the Grand Rapids and Indiana and the Lake Erie and Western.

It has six miles of interurban railways, with others building and in contemplation. These railways have a direct connection with the great interurban systems of Ohio and Indiana.

Within a radius of about 200 miles Fort Wayne is about equidistant from her sister cities of Indianapolis, Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and Grand Rapids.

It has no slum district. It is a city of homes, the proportion of home owners to its population being greater than in any city of its class in the United States.

It is known as the "Summit City," as it sits upon the crest of the watershed whence the waters flow east to the St. Lawrence and west to the Mississippi.

It is on the line of the proposed deep waterway known as the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago Trunk Line Barge Canal, which will unite the waters of Lake Michigan and Lake Erie.

It has the best distributed system of parks of any city in the state, seventeen in number, covering four hundred and forty-five acres of land, with one other now being acquired. When these are secured there will be a park within ten minutes' walk of the home of every citizen in Fort Wayne.

It has a Chamber of Commerce with a membership of 1,400, to the members of which the city is indebted for the new Anthony Hotel, costing for grounds, buildings and furnishings over $500,000.00.

It has the finest court house west of the Alleghenies, designed by a Fort Wayne architect and built without a dollar of "graft" going into it.

It has three national banks and two state banks with assets of $26,992,275.65; six trust companies with assets of $23,991,336.32.

It owns its own waterworks with an ample supply of pure deep rock well water, the value of the plant being estimated at $1,625,252.90; the rates are the lowest in the state. There are 175 55-100 miles of pipe.

It owns its own municipal lighting plant for both city and commercial purposes, valued at $1,000,000.00.

It has one hundred and thirty miles of paved streets, ninety-eight miles being asphalt and thirty-two miles of brick; eighty-one miles of paved alleys; one hundred and seventy miles of cement sidewalks, and one hundred and thirty-eight miles of sewers.

It has the finest public market house in Indiana.

It has over fifty churches, three large public hospitals, the Irene Byron Memorial Tuberculosis Hospital in close vicinity, two fine opera houses, three large photoplay houses and eight smaller ones, nineteen large public school buildings (several with fine playgrounds attached), seven public playgrounds and fifteen fine parochial schools, the handsomest Scottish Rite cathedral in the world, a beautiful Masonic Temple, an elegant country club, a $100,000.00 Young Women's Christian Association and a $338,000.00 Young Men's Christian Association.

It is one of the best lighted cities in the country, all of its business section being illuminated with five-light ornamental lamp posts, placed seventy-five feet apart on both sides of the street.

It has four daily newspapers, all of these of very wide circulation, covering all of northeastern Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

It has some of the largest manufacturing plants in the United States, among which are the Pennsylvania shops, the General Electric Co., Fort Wayne Works; the Bass Foundry and Machine Works; Fort Wayne Foundry and Machine Co.; the Wayne Knitting Mills, the largest full-fashioned hosiery mill in the country; the Packard Piano Company; Fort Wayne Engineering & Mfg. Co.; the Western Gas Construction Company; the Bowser Oil Tank and Pump Company; the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump Company; Tokheim Oil Tank and Pump Company; the Van Arnam Mfg. Co.; the General Electric Lamp Factory, the International Harvester Company, and many others.

The bank clearings for the year 1921 totaled $92,206,238.39.

LISTS OF NAMES

Any Business—Any Locality

Accurate and Up-to-the-Minute

We publish over 500 Directories—City, County, State, National and Trade. We furnish real live up-to-date lists of all trades and professions.

As directory publishers we frequently have available for lists the manuscript copy from which directories are being compiled, and thus you may secure information in advance of publication, a service that cannot be had elsewhere.

We have no trade lists—our information is taken from the latest sources, and above all things, is accurate.

The City Directory

is the most effective and most economical method of reaching all the people all the time. Those who buy without looking at the lists of those who sell do themselves great injustice. The classified lists in the Business Directory form the best Buyers' Guide on earth. A modern up-to-date method of getting what you want.

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of R. L. POLK & CO. printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take payment for either advertisements or subscriptions.

The Sign Over Your Door

Is a good thing, isn't it? You would not think of doing business without it. BUT it is only seen by those who pass your door. If you could put a sign where everyone could see it, would it interest you?

The City Directory

Is where people look for you when they want to do business. You should make it easy for them to find you, by putting such information as a buyer wants in the Directory, properly indexed under all headings, where he might look for you.
